A large, grey, rectangular rock is the central focus, with the words "BIG BAY" painted on it in a white, blocky, sans-serif font. The rock is surrounded by lush greenery, including a large pine tree on the right and various bushes and ferns in the foreground. A wooden building with a stone chimney is visible in the background on the left. A rusty metal anchor is leaning against the rock. The foreground is a grassy area with a stone border. A red date stamp is in the bottom right corner.
